MODERN TOWER CHIMES

(Played by Organist from Electric Keyboard)

Inventive genius has made the operation of Modern Tower Chimes as simple and easy as picking out a tune with one finger on the piano. The tone—round, full and velvety—is fully controlled by electrically operated striking actions and dampers which latter prevent all tone intermingling. Cost is moderate. Concerted action will enable US to have Chimes ringing by NEXT Christmas.

THE MEMORIAL SUBLIME

To persons of affluence these modern Chimes present the one most fitting and enduring form of Memorial. Inquiry addressed to J. C. Deagan, Inc., 279 Deagan Building, Chicago (to whom we are indebted for these folders) will bring, without obligation, full information including attractive Memorial Booklet.

LONLINESS AND HOW TO OVERCOME IT.

Jn. 16:32 Behold the hour cometh, yea is come, that ye shall be acattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet, I am not alone because the Father is with me.

Intro, The picture of the lonliness of Jesus.
Alone in the temple.
His own family thot him "queer"
Oft alone, to pray and thimk and rest.
No home-life of his own.
Misunderstood by his closest friends-the disciples.
Alone in his extreme sufferings and death.

Lonliness is the common experience of every person.
The crowded boat-loads of commuters on the S.F. Bay.
The crowd, the multitude, the masses, the people.
The stream pours off the boat and divides, jamming the electric cars on their many tracks.
The trains empty at stations and what once was a stream of humanity is now broken into bits, each one gone unto his own home. He might be the most commonplace person, but in his own home he is loved and thot much of.

Yet the most loved person cannot escape lonliness.

1. He comes into this world alone. The tiny baby.

2. He must acquire his own knowledge alone.
Both school knowledge and practical knowledge.

3.

3. He must suffer alone.

4. He must face the responsibilities of life alone.

5. He must die alone.
Gen.Grant when dying.
"Be brave as you once were in the old days."
"What do you mean?"
"When you had the army back of you."
"I havint the army back of me now".

6. He must face his judgments alone.
The criticisms of his own acts, the remorse of his own conscience, the judgment of his own God.
Alone he must answer for every deed of his life.

The world is full of lonliness.
In the great cities, how they live alone!
The bright lights and the nitelife exist largely because there is so much lonesomeness seeking relief. Girls pick up acquaintance with boys knowing nothing about them, just because they are so lonely.

In the face of this universal solitude of individuals we get a new sense of appreciation for some of the most precsous experiences of life.
LOVE AND SYMPATHY , KINDRED AND HOME
FRIENDSHIP AND COMPANIONSHIP
ENCOURAGEMENT AND ADVICE, GUIDANCE AND DIRECTION.

But these things cannot completely take away our lonliness.
Jesus had all of these things, yet he was alone and lonely.
Yet Christ was not alone, for, as he claims, his Father was always with him.

Be not afraid, for I am with you, even unto the end of the world.

The little orphan who overcame his loneliness with a piece of his mother's dress.
